Lymington, 12 June, 1848.

THE following Notes were extracted from the Records of the Borough of Lymington by the late Mr. Charles St. Barbe, F.S.A., who had completed the work but a short period before his death. He was a native of the town, and long a resident there, and had taken a very great interest in the locality and its antiquities, and from having been for some years a member of the Corporation, and several times Mayor, he had access to all its documents, and was therefore in every way qualified for the task he had imposed upon himself. His ability as an antiquary and his private character may be best estimated by some extracts from the obituary of the Gentleman's Magazine. "Having a taste for historical literature, he made many communications to our miscellany, some of which we are able to specify ;—"Remarks on the Collar of SS in 1813, 1815, and 1828. "An account of the parish of Ashington, county of Somerset, &c." An article on "Book Plates," 1823. "On a Bas-relief of St. Eloy," 1824. "An account of Moyle Court," 1828, &c.

Mr. St. Barbe also rendered good service to the readers of the Gentleman's Magazine by compiling the very accurate list of Plates and Woodcuts from its commencement to the year 1818, which forms the 5th Volume of its General Index. He had made prints his study, particularly those engraved in this country, and had intended to have published an enlargement of "Walpole's Catalogue of Engravers" to the end of the eighteenth century, but the MSS. still remain with his family. In private life he was greatly and deservedly beloved; of a tranquil and studious disposition, and entering cordially into many branches of enquiry, he had laid up a vast amount of information, which he willingly communicated.

As time passes away, and new forms and customs arise, the early records of our old Corporations become yearly more curious and valuable, and as it is remembered that during his life he willingly gave to others the benefit of his knowledge and research, it is believed that the printing these notes is not only in some degree carrying out his intentions, but is also a deserved tribute to the memory of a kind and good man, and a talented antiquary.

LYMINGTON.

EARLIEST NOTICES OF THE BOROUGH AND OF ITS EXTENT.

THE only writer upon the history of the Town of Lymington that is entitled to attention is the Rev. Richard Warner, who was elected a Burgess of the Corporation in 1814; the work alluded to is entitled "Topographical Remarks upon the South Western Parts of Hampshire, published in 1793, wherein he states as regards the Borough, "I find by an ancient Quo Warranto, that a Fair was established in the town so far back as the 8th of Edward the Second, a privilege it probably enjoyed from some charter of franchises granted by the family of De Redvers." Further, he adds, that he found that Lymington was a Borough in the reign of Edward the Third, and as such had summonses sent to it for the return of Representatives to Parliament, but, it seems, had not complied with the precept till the 27th of Elizabeth. He also stated that in the reign of James the First its incorporation by charter took place; of this, however, I find no mention in the books of the Corporation, therefore the writer must have been misled by erroneous information; and, in justice to him, let it be remembered that he wrote it long before he became a Burgess. Among the Archives remaining in the Town Chest at this time, there is no grant or charter, nor any copy; but there is a document which is indorsed—"An Exemplification of a Judgment upon a Writ of Quo Warranto issued on the 21st and 23rd years of Queen Elizabeth in affirmation of the privileges of the Town of Lymington." The translation from the Latin original states—

A.D. 1578 to 1581.

"That the Mayor and Burgesses enjoy fully to be exonerated divers liberties and franchises, and all the lands and possessions which were of Dame Isabella de Fortibus,<sup>1</sup> Countess of Albemarle and Devon and Lady of the Isle of Wight, or, afterwards of Edward Courtney,<sup>2</sup> Earl of Devon, and now or late in the possession of our Lady the Queen, in Town, ways, lands and sea, bridges and passages, port or haven, in fairs and markets, as much as to her the said Countess, or to him the said Earl of Devon did belong; and the which was granted on the Feast of St. Thomas the Apostle in the sixth year of the reign of Henry the 4th,<sup>3</sup> by Indenture sealed with the seal of the said Edward, Earl of Devon, which deed was produced in the Court, by which the s<sup>d</sup> Edward did give and grant to the said Burgesses Toll and Stallage of the s<sup>d</sup> Borough, together with the Tolls and Stallage of that Borough which Baldwin de Ryvers,<sup>4</sup> late Earl of Devon, and brother of the said Isabella the Countess,<sup>5</sup> did make on the north and west parts of the Church of Lymington<sup>6</sup> aforesaid, &c., paying to the s<sup>d</sup> Edward and his heirs thirty shillings sterling at two feasts or terms of the year, viz.: 15s. at Easter and 15s. at Michaelmas; and as to the Fairs, one to be held in the High Street on the feast of St. Matthew, and the other on that of the Apostles Philip and James. Our Lady the Queen having seen the plea of them the afores<sup>d</sup> Mayor and Burgesses, and the matter therein “contained by Gilbert Gerrard, Esq<sup>re</sup>, Attorney of the Queen, diligently examined and understood, and for that, as well as by the report of the Lord Treasurer of England, and by the testimony of John Mawdett, George Bewrarde, Thomas Loder, and John Maller, of Lymington afores<sup>d</sup> and many other faithful subjects of the Queen, as by the view and information of the afores<sup>d</sup> Indenture of Edward, Earl of Devon, sealed with his seal reciting the charter of Isabella de Fortibus, Countess of Albemarle and Devon, made to them the s<sup>d</sup> Mayor and Burgesses and produced here into Court; it is sufficiently justified that the plea of the s<sup>d</sup> Mayor is true, whereof the s<sup>d</sup> Attorney of the s<sup>d</sup> Lady the Queene cannot deny,” &c., &c.

It appears that in the reign of Edward the Second, that Lymington lost, by the decision of a Court of Law, the advantages it had previously enjoyed as a Port; for in Madox’s “Firma Burgi” it is recorded that, “In or about the 17th year of that King the Townsmen of Southampton sued the Town of Lymington in an action of trespass. The action was brought and carried on thus—Geoffrey Scurlag and William Culhout, with eighteen other men of the Town of Lymington, were attached to answer unto the King, and to the Mayor, Bailiffs, and other men of the community of the Town of Southampton, in a plea of trespass, complaining that they held the Town of South<sup>ton</sup>, with the port thereof extending from beyond Hurst to Langstone, of the King at fee farm for CCXX.£ yearly payable at the King’s Exchequer. That for this Ferm they ought to have and receive Customs of all merchandises within the said Bounds coming or going out of the said port, excepting those from certain merchants, who by the King’s charter are quit of payment of such Customs. That the said Def<sup>ts</sup> on the 17th of the King now reigning did unjustly take certain Customs of salt, corn, barley, and oats, due to the King from the Ship Le Johette, to the amount of XI<sup>s</sup>.; and afterwards of the King’s Customs of cloth, wax, and other wares, from the Ship called the Port Joy, to the amount of Cs. That they still continue to receive said Customs from day to day, by means whereof the said Townsmen of South<sup>ton</sup> are disabled to pay their said Ferm to the King. That the said Def<sup>ts</sup> did beat and evil treat William Depeden, the King’s Customer, and would not suffer him to take and levy the Customs due to the King, to the King’s prejudice, and to the damage of the Townsmen of South<sup>ton</sup>. The said Def<sup>ts</sup> deny the wrong and trespass, and say that Lymington is not within the bounds of the said port of South<sup>ton</sup>. The Jury say that all the water between Hurst and Langstone is of the port and within the precincts of South<sup>ton</sup>, and the Court gave as damages CC£—and decreed that the said Scurlag and Culhout be dismissed the Court.”

By another document (a copy) remaining in the Town Chest, it appears that the question of Port Dues was revived in the 23rd year of the reign of Henry the Seventh, and settled by an amicable agreement, dated 5th April, A.D. 1508, between the Mayor, Bailiffs, Burgesses, and Commonalty of the Towns of Southampton and Lymington, under their common seals; Robert Bishop being Mayor, John Grigge and Thomas Yevay, Bailiffs, of Southampton; and Robert Maller, Mayor, Richard Kent, Bailiff, and Sir Hugh Conweye,<sup>1</sup> Kt., Lord of the Manor, of Lymington; by which agreement the right of levying and receiving duties on certain articles of merchandize (of which a schedule was annexed) was allowed to the Town of Southampton; and the dues on other articles, keelage and wharfage of vessels, remained for the sole benefit of Lymington: both parties, for the due performance of the agreement, bound themselves in a penalty of twenty pounds for any default or breach thereof.

THE PRESENT EXTENT OF THE BOROUGH.

THE Corporation of Lymington, from a remote period, have held "One hundred Acres" of the Manor of New Lymington, constituting "The Borough," under a Lease from the Lords thereof, which Deed it appears had been lost; and in consequence the Mayor and Burgesses for the time being represented the case to Mrs. Elizabeth Guitton, of Wickham, in this county, Widow, then Lady and in the possession of the Manor, who by a Deed of Declaration, dated 13 Oct., 1795, confirmed to the Mayor and Burgesses, and their successors for ever, all that right which had been exercised by them and their predecessors in the said Manor, upon the payment of the annual Fee Farm Rent of Five Pounds, payable at the Feast of St. Michael; and as doubts had arisen respecting the situation and boundaries of the same, a Plan thereof was made and affixed to the Deed, with a description of the same in the following words:—

"From the Dockhead of the Quay and Shipwrights' Yard now in the possession of Jas. Fiander Shipwright on the southernmost part thereof in a strait line by the south end of a certain street or lane in New Lymington called Captain's Row up the road or lane called the Rope Walk Lane, to the messuage and premises in the tenure of Jas. Huish Wolcot, Esq., passing by the south side or front thereof up the middle of the lane called Church Lane direct to the west gate of the Churchyard of New Lymington, thence entering and passing thro' the same, close by the west side thereof thro' the gate leading to the Bar Fields and thro' the same in a straight line to the north thro' parts of the fields now in the occupation of Heywood, Rogerson, Bay, and Harker, to the westward of another part of the said fields now in the occupation of Trattle at the north corner of the same, close to a hedge or fence of the said fields now in the occupation of Templer, from thence in a direct line thro' that part in the occupation of said Trattle, called Mogshade, thence crossing the King's Highway into and thro' a close of land belonging to Townsend Farm called the Tything Barn Field by the end of the barn; from thence in a strait line thro' a close next adjoining now in the tenure of B. Wickenden down to the shore of the River of Lymington, called the Mudlands, from thence southwardly by the east end of certain closes of land called May Cross and . . . now in the occupation of West, Uppel, Weymouth, and Chas. St. Barbe, to certain messuages called Vienna Row, thence forward by the bank of land formerly a Saltern and in the tenure of B. Wickenden, by the shore of the river aforesaid, by the Dock or Quay of Thos. Brice, and of the public Quays of Lymington to the Dockhead of the s<sup>d</sup> Jas. Fiander before ment<sup>d</sup>; which s<sup>d</sup> premises contain in admeasurement—from the Dockhead of the s<sup>d</sup> Fiander to the messuage and premises of J. H. Wolcott twenty-six chains; from the last-ment<sup>d</sup> premises up the Church Lane thro' the Bar Fields to the north-west corner of the s<sup>d</sup> fields in the tenure of Trattle, forty chains and twenty-five links; from the last ment<sup>d</sup> corner on a line thro' the mockshade by the Tything Barn thro' the close of B. Wickenden to the shore of the Mudlands, twenty-five chains and five links; and from thence on a line to the Dockhead of Fiander, thirty-seven chains and five links; and doth contain in the whole in superficial contents one hundred and five acres, three quarters, twenty-seven poles."

SEAL OF THE TOWN OF LYMINSTON.

In use since 1669.

The Arms are thus described by EDMONDSON :

*“ On the sea, an antique ship with one
“ mast, her sail furled ; on the sinister “ side of the mast an escutcheon of the “ Arms of Courtney with a label of “ three points.”*

THE BURGESSES' OATH.

You shall be true to our Sovereign Lord the King's Majesty, his heirs and successors. The franchises, privileges, and liberties of this town, with all your power, wit, and wisdom, you shall maintain and defend as a true and faithful Burgess ought to do; the lawful counsel of this town you shall truly keep, and nothing disclose to any foreigner or stranger, whereby any hindrance may happen to this town; you shall not willingly absent yourself from the assembly of the Mayor and Burgesses upon reasonable warning; all lawful constitutions, orders, and decrees, heretofore made, or hereafter to be made, by the Mayor and Burgesses of this town you shall well and truly keep, observe, and obey, as a Burgess ought to do; you shall be no partner to foreigner or stranger, nor cellar any man's goods whereby the benefit of this town, or any town duties, may be lost or be by any means hindered; you shall not conceal any injuries or wrong offered or pretended to your knowledge to the estate of this town; but you shall give knowledge thereof to the Mayor and his brethren. And in all other things concerning the duty of a Burgess and a good townsman you shall well and truly behave yourself.

So help you God.

These were the last Members elected previous to the Municipal Act passed in the 5th and 6th year of the reign of William 4th, 9th Sept. 1835.

Note.—The inhabitants of the town (not being Burgesses) in three instances elected Representatives in opposition to the Members chosen by the Mayor and Burgesses, viz. :—

Feb. 4, 1689	..	{	Thomas Dore, Esq.	..	..	..	..	}	Returned by the Mayor
			John Burrard, Esq.	..	..	..	..	}
At the same time	..		Chosen by the Commonalty out of the Hall..					{	Thomas Jervoise, Esq.
								}	Oliver Cromwell, Esq.
Oct. 29, 1695	..	{	Thomas Dore, Esq.	..	..	..	..	}	Returned by the Mayor
			John Burrard, Esq.	..	..	..	..	}
At the same time	..		Chosen by the Commonalty ..					{	John Pitt, Esq.
								}	William Clarke, Esq.
Oct. 9, 1710	..	{	Lord William Powlett	..	..	..	..	}	Returned by the Mayor
			Paul Burrard, Esq.	..	..	..	..	}
At the same time	..		Chosen by the Commonalty ..					{	John Walter, Esq.
								}	William Forbes, Esq.

The House of Commons having referred these several cases to the Committee of Privileges, the latter reported that, upon the evidence produced, the election for the borough has been, and is, in the Mayor and Burgesses only. The first return by the Mayor of 4th February, 1689, was confirmed by the Committee, 29th December, 1691. Mr. Serjeant Trenchard stated, on the part of the Corporation, that, in 1688, a quo warranto was brought against the Corporation, to which the Mayor pleaded a prescriptive right, whereupon the King's Counsel did not think proper to proceed further. The second return of the 29th October, 1695, was confirmed by the Committee, 18th February,  $\frac{1695}{1696}$ . In this case, two ancient deeds in possession of the Corporation (vide List at page 38), were produced. The third return of 9th October, 1710, was confirmed by the Committee, 10th Anne, 1711. In the evidence, Sir Robert Smyth, Bart., stated that when he was Mayor of the town, in 1689, he refused to make Honorary Burgesses, or persons who were not inhabitants of the town.

Mr. Charles Hackman stated that there were about 70 Burgesses, of whom 15 or 16 only were inhabitants, and that there were nearly 100 other housekeepers who paid to church and poor, excepting about 4 of them.

OFFICERS OF THE CORPORATION.

RECORDERS.

- 1596.—Richard Hardey, Esq., elected a Burgess; was succeeded by 1606.—John More, of North Badsley, in Hampshire, appointed at a salary of 40s. per annum.
 1622.—Thomas South, Esq. of Winchester. After that year no entry appears until 1698.
 1698.—Roger Mompesson, Esq., elected a Burgess, 1683; he was dismissed in 1704.
 1704.—Francis Dickins, Esq., of Gray's Inn; died in 1757, and was succeeded by 1757.—Harry Burrard, Esq., of Walhampton, created a Baronet in 1769; he resigned his office in 1783.
 1783.—Mr. Serjeant Giles Rooke, afterwards Knight and a Judge; resigned his Recordship in 1794.
 1794.—Nathaniel B. Bond, at whose decease, in 1824, he was succeeded by 1824.—Sir Harry Burrard Neale, Bart.; who was the last appointed previous to the New Municipal Act of William 4th, 1835.

N.B.—In the Corporation Books they were sometimes called STEWARDS. See under that OFFICE.

---

TOWN CLERKS.

Persons so designated in the Books.

- 1699.—William Vesey
 1744.—Odber Knapton
 1747.—John How, jun.
 1774.—William Trattle
 1826.—James Brown, who died, and was succeeded by his son.
 1835.—James Brown (late the younger), being the last appointed previous to the New Municipal Act in 1835. (Died, May, 1860.)

STEWARD.

The first notice of this Officer appears under the date 1584, two Burgesses being appointed; who, it appears, collected the Market and Quay dues, Quit-rents, &c., for the year, and accounted for the same to the Mayor.

BAILIFF.

It appears that, in 1598, a resolution was made by the Mayor that none but a Burgess should be appointed to this office, which order it appears was afterwards rescinded, and that the election was made annually, until discontinued.

---

TOWN SERJEANT.

The first charge in the Mayor's Annual Account for "the Serjeant" was in 1675; his year's wages was thirty shillings, and, in 1681, increased to forty-five shillings.

ALE-TASTER.

An office, the duty of which is to look to the assize and goodness of ale, bread, &c. The appointment took place at the time of choosing the Mayor. The first mention in the Books occurs in 1602. One of the Burgesses was elected annually.

The following is an entry made in the Corporation Book (No. 2):—

A Schedule of all the Ancient Writings in the Town Chest when I entered upon my office as Mayor, anno domini 1726, which, being numbered, may be referred to by the figures in the margin of these columns :

- No. 1.—A grant of Fairs, Markets, and the Quay.
- 2.—Another grant of the same, confirming the former.
- 3.—Grant from the Mayor and Burgesses of Southampton of certain privileges, under a yearly rent.

N.B.—The above Grants are in Mr. Samber's hands since the trial about the petty Customs with Southampton.

- 4.—A grant of 20s. per annum, payable to the Churchwardens of Lymington and Brockenhurst, for a requiem appointed to be sung to the souls of the donors and their family.
- 5.—Grant of a Craft, called Bonedowns (now Holmes Mead), to the Mayor and Burgesses of Lymington, under the yearly rent of 5s. to the poor.
- 6.—Another grant of the same premises of the same date, with this additional difference, that Mass shall be sung at the Church of Lymington once a year for the souls of the Donors and their family.
- 7.—Twelve small writings appointing Attorneys for Livery and Seizin for Holmes Mead at several times.
- 8.—Grant of a Messuage at Romsey to one Nicholas Gladheyt by one Baker.
- 9.—Grant made by the Mayor and Burgesses of a piece of land under the same seal now used.
- 10.—Grant of a Tenement in New Lymington by Ellis to Brocket.
- 11.—*Grant of the Old Town Hall and half an acre of land by Juliana Tevant, under the yearly rent of 3s. & 4d. to the poor.

MEM. These writings (except as above) are in the little painted box.

PAUL BURRARD,

Mayor.

Remarks on these Deeds—

- Nos. 1, 2, and 3, are not to be found in the Town Chest, and it would seem have never been returned since the foregoing notice was entered in the Town Book in 1726.
- No. 3.—This Deed is noticed in the Town Book, No. 3, p. 4, in relation to the proceedings in Parliament 10 Feb., 1706, when this with another deed (No. 9) were produced. 3d Edward 3d. The grantees named therein were William Littlecare, prepositus, and Roger Gust (a Burgess), of Lymington.
- 4.—The requiem appears to be for the souls of the family of Walwyn, related to the Ashleys, of Winborne, the date 16th of Henry 8th. It does not appear how the Corporation was concerned in this matter.
- 5.—Relates to Holmes' Mead, dated 4th Edward 4th. John Quicke, Mayor.
- 6.—Relates to the same property (which was exchanged lately for land in the parish of Lymington), dated same year.

* Vide p. 28 for date; and also of a confirmation of this grant by another deed.

- No. 8.—The property at Romsey, with which the Corporation of Lymington does not appear to be concerned, dated 10 Henry 5th.
- 9.—The Mayor was Richard Draper, the grantee John Pepwhyte; the seal is lost, but the impression shows that it was well cut, and much superior to that in the Town Chest; dated 10 Henry 4th.
- 10.—The Mayor was George Kent, dated 19 Henry 7th.
- 11.—The Mayor was John Quicke, dated 4 Edward 4th. The building referred to was taken down in 1780. (Vide page 41.)

The following Deeds and Writings, not noticed by Mr. Burrard, are now in the Town Chest, viz. :—

2d Edward 2nd.

An Agreement between the Abbot of Beaulieu and William Lyteltane, Mayor of Lymington, to the effect that the Abbot's servants shall sell and buy within the town on the same terms as the Burgesses. This amicable arrangement was brought about by the intercession of Hugh Courtenay (Earl of Devon).

4th Edward 4th.

Confirmation of a grant (No. 11) by Joanna Teffant (or Tevant). John Quicke, Mayor.

23d Henry 7th.

Agreement with the Corporation of Southampton relative to port dues (see page 2). Robert Maller, Mayor.

21 & 23 Elizabeth.

An exemplification of a judgment in affirmation of the privileges of the Corporation, reciting their Charters (see page 1).

14th Charles 2nd.

Appointment under the Great Seal of Commissioners, conditionally to remove Mayors and Burgesses (see page 36).

Order of Alteration of the day for the Election of the Mayor, and for the Entertainment of the Burgesses and their Wives on that day. 1651.

Whereas it hath been accustomed by the Mayor and Burgesses of this Burrough that the Election day for the choyse of the Mayor was upon the Lord's day before Michaelmas day. Now it is ordered and decreed by the Mayor and Burgesses of this Burrough now assembled whose names are hereunder written, That the Election day for the choyse of the Mayor shall be on the Tuesday before Michaelmas day in the forenoon. And it is further ordered and decreed that the Mayor for the time being shall upon the Election day of the new Mayor prepare a diner for all the Burgesses and their wives. And for his allowance in consideration of his charge, it is ordered and agreed that the said Mayor shall be allowed out of the Burrough Rents the some of Three pounds yearly. And it is also further ordered and decreed that if the Mayor for the time being shall neglect the providing of a diner for the Burgesses and their wives on the day before mentioned, that then the said Mayor shall forfeite and pay unto the Burgesses of this Towne and their successo<sup>rs</sup> the some of five pounds of currant money.

Signed by the Mayor and six Burgesses.

N.B.—Whether the alteration of the day of the Election was adopted, and how long it was continued, does not appear on record; but the election certainly was on the Sunday following the Feast of St. Matthew for a century past up to the passing of the Municipal Act in 1835. As to the entertainment of the Burgesses, the dinner appears to have been given, and the allowance to the Mayor paid up to the year 1672, in the Mayoralty of Henry Bromfield, but afterwards discontinued. In 1709 a charge of £3 is made for a Breakfast, and it had been a custom during the last fifty years for the Mayor on the day of the Election, being a Sunday, to invite all the respectable part of the inhabitants to a Breakfast of Roast Beef at the Town Hall, and afterwards to proceed to the Church.

By a Parchment Writing in the Town Chest not dated or signed (blanks not filled up) it is stated that in the 13th year of Charles the 2nd (A.D. 1661) an Act was passed for "The Governing and Regulating of Corporations," and that the year following (1662) a Commission was issued under the Great Seal appointing Commissioners for the County of Southampton. And accordingly that notice was given to the Corporation of Lymington at which time Philip Dore was Mayor and he and several Burgesses appeared before the Comm<sup>rs</sup>, but upon the oaths and declaration being tendered the Mayor refused to subscribe, whereupon the Commissioners displaced him from his office and appointed Francis Guidott to be Mayor, who took the oaths and made the declaration required. Subsequently they removed and displaced twenty-one Burgesses who did not appear or answer the summons, and appointed six inhabitants in their stead as Burgesses. These proceedings however are not recorded in the Town Book, and it would appear that the displaced Burgesses continued to act as their names are subscribed at the elections afterwards. Philip Dore was Mayor for two consecutive years 1652 and 1653. Francis Guidott was Mayor in 1662 and 1663, which accords with the time (1662) in which Philip Dore is mentioned to have been displaced.

And in the Mayor's account for this year are payments for the expences attending a Suit at Law brought by the Corporation against the Lord of the Manor (Bartholomew Bulkley, Esq.) to whom the Annual Rent for Fairs and Markets were paid; the object of this suit does not appear, but in the account for the year 1616 (which was the earliest in the Corporation Book) the annual sum paid as "for Fee Farm Rent" was £1 12s. 1d. to the Campion Family, and so continued to the year 1664, when it was paid to the Bulkleys, by whom it was increased to £2 12s. 1d. and afterwards in 1679 raised to £7 12s. 1d., which sum continued to be paid to the succeeding Lords to the year 1835. The members of both families (the Campions, and Bulkleys, of Burgate) appear in the Lists of Burgesses and of the Members of Parliament for the Borough. According to a Record the Rent for Fairs, Markets, &c, was thirty shillings per annum at the time of the Charter being confirmed by Edward Courtenay Earl of Devon in the 6th year of the reign of King Henry the Fourth. (Vide page 1.)

At a Swainmote Court of New Forest held at Lyndhurst, the Mayor and Burgesses of New Lymington claimed for them and their successors Common of Turbary in the Bailiwick of Bratramsley for necessary fuel to be spent in the ancient messuage in the town of Lymington, also Common of Pasture from May to September for the Burgesses' gross Cattle called Horse and *Rother Beasts, paying yearly 8d. Also Common of Pannage for their Hogs ringed in pannage time, paying for every hog of a year old 4d., and for every one under 2d., at the Feast of St. Michael.

At page 25 it is stated that about the year 1710 there were the same number of Resident Burgesses, and it does not appear that there was an increase ever after.

Quit Rents for Sign Posts of the Inns in the Borough as paid in this year, viz.:—

The Naggs Head
The George
The White Lyon
The Bugle

the yearly rent being fourpence each.

Voting by Ballot.

Ordered by the Mayor and Burgesses to prevent animosities and other inconveniences That for the future the election of Mayor as well as of Members of Parliament for the Borough shall be by means of different coloured Bullets to be provided at the time of such elections, to be placed by each Burgess in a Box for that purpose. This order however does not appear to have been acted upon; and on the 11th February following, it was rescinded at a "Common Hall" convened for that purpose.

* Horned.

Both the Entries in the Corporation Book were signed by the Mayor “Edward Edwards;” the Burgesses also adding their signatures, viz:—

For the Measure.		Against it.
Henry Lyne	Philip Dore	Francis Guidott	Tho <sup>s</sup> Glevin

W <sup>m</sup> Burrard	John Button	John Stausley
Jn <sup>o</sup> Burrard

N.B.—The Election of Mayor by Ballot is still the custom at Southampton.

1677. Protest against the Oath called “the Solemn League and Covenant”—

I John Dore doe declare that there lies noe obligason upon mee or any other person from the Oath commonly called ‘the Solemn league and Covenant’ and that the same is in itself an unlawfull oath and imposed upon the subjects of this Realm ag<sup>t</sup> the known laws and liberties of the Kingdom.

(Signed) JOHN DORE.

The above is written under the admission of Mr. Dore to the Burgesship. The same declaration was made in 1698 by the Recorder Roger Mompesson (who styles himself Steward).

1684. A New Hall, and Corn Market ordered to be built, at a charge not exceeding £220, towards which the following Contributions were made:—

A Legacy of John Button Esq. dec <sup>d</sup>	..	..	..	..	..	£100
Henry Tulse Esq. (a donation)	..	..	..	..	..	10
Tho <sup>s</sup> Bulkley Esq. —	..	..	..	..	..	15
Richard Holt Esq. —	..	..	..	..	..	10
Daniel Blake Esq. (for wainscotting)	..	..	..	..	..	30

The deficiency appears to have been raised by fines for Leases on lives of the property belonging to the Corporation. The Building is now in use, several alterations however having been made, and the Market or Butter Cross taken down.*

1687. In the second year of the reign of James the 2nd a Writ of Quo Warranto was issued against the Mayor and Burgesses calling upon them to appear and shew the authority by which they claimed to use divers liberties privileges and franchises within the Borough whereupon the Mayor repaired to London, and having pleaded in the Court of King’s Bench at Westminster (thro’ Counsel) a prescriptive right, the King’s Counsel did not think fit to proceed further.

On the 21 Jan<sup>y</sup> and 3 Feb<sup>y</sup> 1687-8 William Eyre Esq. of the Inner Temple Counsellor, and George Burrard Esq. of Lyons Inn Attorney, were appointed to act for the Corporation in this suit. The Expences thereupon appear in the Account of Robert Edwards for the year  $\frac{1687}{1688}$  viz:—

My Expences going to London about the Charter .. .. .	£4
Paid Mr. George Burrard expences of Law in defence of the Quo Warranto brought against the Towne .. .. .	£40

Representatives for the Borough summoned by the Prince of Orange (afterw<sup>as</sup> King William the 3rd). 1688
1689

Mem<sup>m</sup>.—That the 14th day of January A.D. 1688 the Mayor and Burgesses whose names are subscribed by virtue of his Highness The Prince of Orange his circular letter, assembled at the Towne Hall and then and there did elect and choose Richard Holt Esq. and John Burrard Esq. Burgesses to represent us at Westm<sup>r</sup> at the Convention to be held the 22nd day of January instant by the majority according to the effect of the said letter.

Signed by RICHARD WHITHED Mayor and 21 Burgesses.

N..B.—The persons here appointed were the actual Members of Parliament for the Boro'.

The Commonalty presuming on a right, assembled and elected two Representatives in Parliament in opposition to those chosen and returned by the Mayor and Burgesses (vide page 24). The opposing gentlemen were Thomas Jervoise Esq. of Herriard in this County of which family several of its members have represented the County and several of the Boroughs in Parliament. The other opposing Member was Oliver Cromwell Esq. son of Richard and grandson of the Protector. He resided at Hursley in this County and died there in 1705 at the age of 49. 1689
4 Feb.

The Commonalty again elected two Members in opposition to the Corporation (vide page 24). These were John Pitt Esq. (uncle to the 1st Earl of Chatham) and William Clarke Esq. who petitioned the House of Commons, but were rejected. 1695.

At the close of the century (the 17th) I here insert some extracts from the Mayor's Accounts:—

1621. Mending the Cucking Stool	.. .. .	3s. 0
1629. Making a New Pillory and Cooking Stool	.. .. .	16 0
1664. For a Ducking Stool and Pillary	.. .. .	50 0
Publick Bull Baiting.
1675. For a Rope and Collar for the Bull	.. .. .	12 0
1700. For the same	.. .. .	14 0
1682. For a Rope and Bull Ring	.. .. .	5 6
1616. For keeping the Tolsey Book (or account of Tolls so called for many years)..	.. .. .	2 0
1682. For a Stick for Jack of the Basket (a well known Beacon at the Entrance of the Haven or Creek)..	.. .. .	7 0
1669. For a Town Seale (the same now in use, cut in Silver?)	.. .. .	1 15 0

Mem<sup>m</sup>.—The Mayor and Burgesses of the Borough at the Town Hall then and there assembled taking into consideration a Message sent by Arthur Atherley Esq. then Mayor of the Town of South<sup>ton</sup> by Mr. John Knapton Town Clerk there to the Mayor of Lymington to desire leave of this Corporation to erect a Booth on Lymington Key for their more conveniently keeping a Court of Admiralty there, also leave to carry their Oar erect through the said Borough to and from the said Booth. The said Mayor and Burgesses upon such explanation have given and do give leave for the same accordingly salvo jure to all the rights and privileges of the said Corporation. 1707.
10 Aug.

Signed by JOS. HINXMAN Mayor and Six Burgesses.

N.B.—In 1756 the Mayor of Southampton again asked permission for *the same ceremony adding also that their Trumpeter might precede them in their procession; Leave was granted with the same understanding as on the previous occasion. George West Esq. the Mayor of Southampton accompanied the application with an invitation to his Brother Mayor, to dine at the Angel Inn in Lymington at two o'clock.

At an Election of Members of Parliament for the Borough there were four Candidates, viz.:—

1710.
7 Oct.

Vide p. 24.

The Right Hon <sup>ble</sup> William Powlett, who polled	31	votes
Paul Burrard, Esq.	33	„
John Walter, Esq.	7	„
William Forbes, Esq.	7	„

whereupon the Mayor returned the two first; but the two latter having polled out of the Hall each 87 of the Inhabitants of the Town (not being Burgesses), they petitioned the House of Commons against the sitting members, but the Mayor's Return was allowed and confirmed. And no opposition appears to have been offered to the returns of the Mayor in any future Elections.

1711.
3 Dec. A Lease was granted to Warner and Newman of the Fishery of the River from the Key to St. Ambrose Dock, at a yearly rent of 20s.; the Mayor and Burgesses reserving a right of fixing a moderate price on Oysters for their own use.

1714. Mem<sup>o</sup>.—That whereas a Suit is commenced and prosecuted in His Majesty's Court of Exchequer at Westm<sup>r</sup> in the name of the Mayor Bailiffs and Burgesses of the Town of South<sup>ton</sup> ag<sup>t</sup> Mr. Roger Beere a member of this Corporation and an Inhabitant of this Town upon pretence of a Due or Duty arising by petty customs which the s<sup>d</sup> Corp<sup>n</sup> of South<sup>ton</sup> demand as due to them. Now we the Mayor and Burgesses of the said Borough of Lymington being this day assembled in the Town Hall, and taking the s<sup>d</sup> matter into consideration being all of us of opinion that the same is an illegal and arbitrary exaction of the s<sup>d</sup> Corp<sup>n</sup> of South<sup>ton</sup> and that it is an infringement upon the rights and privileges of this Burrough do therefore consent and agree that the defence of the s<sup>d</sup> suit ag<sup>t</sup> the s<sup>d</sup> Mr. Beere be carried on and answered out of the publick stock of this Corp<sup>n</sup> and if any deficiency shall happen therein we do hereby unanimously consent and agree to make good the same by a voluntary subscription.

Signed by the Mayor and Burgesses.

It does not appear that the Corporation of South<sup>ton</sup> persisted in their claim, or that there was any further interference with the Corporation of Lymington in regard to the petty Customs or Dues, which continued to be levied by them, until the Government established an Office or Custom House at Lymington, subordinate however to the Port of Southampton.

1731-2.
3 Jan. The Causeway and Bridge newly erected deemed detrimental to the Navigation of the Port.

Whereas Cap<sup>t</sup>. William Cross hath lately erected across the River a Bank or Dam whereby it is apprehended the navigation of the River will be greatly injured, if not in time totally destroyed, unless some method be taken to prevent it. It is therefore ordered that the Town Clerk do state a proper case and lay the same before Counsel and report his opinion to the Mayor and Burgesses, and that the Town Clerk do bring an action of Trespass ag<sup>t</sup> the s<sup>d</sup> Cap<sup>t</sup>. Cross at the suit of the Mayor and Burgesses for digging and carrying away the land at Bridge Green which was then in the possession of the Corporation.

Signed by the Mayor and Burgesses.

An action was accordingly brought in the County Court at Winchester, but the proceedings are not noticed in the Corporation Books, yet it appears that it terminated in favour of the Defendant (Captain Cross) as the Causeway and Bridge remain to this time, and it appears that the expenses of the suit were satisfied by a voluntary contribution on the part of the Burgesses; the minutes thereof are dated 26 Sept. 1737. The ground of defence set up by the Def<sup>t</sup> was a right under a grant made by King Charles the First of the Oazey ground overflown or subject to the overflowing of the Sea, within the River or Haven of Lymington. This is further explained by a printed broadsheet (remaining in the Town Chest) entitled

“The Lady Wandesford’s Breviat.

“The Bill recites that the late <sup>(1)</sup> King of Blessed Memory by his Letters Patent “dated 14th July in the 4th year of his reign, for a great debt and faithful service done by “<sup>(2)</sup> Robert Pamplyn Esq<sup>re</sup> to Queen Elizabeth, King James, and his late Majesty, all of whom “he served as Yeoman of the Robes; did grant to Dame Mary Widow of <sup>(3)</sup> Sir George “Wandesford, and Margaret her sister, daughters and co-heirs of the said Pamplyn, certain “Marish and Ouzy lands usually overflowen by the Sea within the County of Southampton, “rend’ring Rent to the King 4*d.* per acre when gained,” &c.

N.B.—Mr. Pamplyn for services rendered to the Town was admitted a Burgess of this Borough in 1593 (vide p. 31) and chosen Mayor in 1609. Lady Wandesford his daughter acted under the grant so lately as 1661 as appears by a Lease from her to James Studley of a Saltwork comprizing 9 acres situate opposite to the Quay of Lymington for the consideration of Forty pounds with a peppercorn rent of one penny. The right appears to be lost by desuetude, as it is not known to whom it may have descended, or of any instance of its having been exercised for a century past.

His Royal Highness Frederick Prince of Wales (Father to King George the Third) signified 1750.
his consent to accept the offer of the Freedom of this Borough, he was accordingly admitted a 25 Aug.
Free Burgess of the Corporation.

(Signed) HARRY BURRARD Mayor.

His Royal Highness Edward Duke of York (Brother to King George the Third) having 1760.
personally signified his wish to accept the Freedom of this Borough was accordingly admitted a 21 Aug.
Free Burgess of the Corporation and took the required oath.

Signed JOSEPH SHEPPARD Mayor.

The ancient Town Hall being greatly out of repair, it was ordered to be taken down, and 1780.
the materials sold or used for the repair of the Quay. The Hall had been used for a School 28 Aug.
endowed by George Fulford, Esq. (a Burgess 1677) since the year 1688, of which several entries are made in the Corp<sup>n</sup> Books mentioning the names of the Schoolmasters.<sup>(4)</sup> After the demolition of this Building, which stood to the west of the present Hall,* the scite was thrown into the street or highway and has not been built upon. No other Schoolroom was found by the Corporation and the Trustees of the Endowment agreed with the Masters of Private Schools in the Town to educate ten poor Boys for the income of the Charity.

Ordered that the Butchers’ Shambles which stood near the Market Cross be removed, and 1783.
moveable stalls substituted. 15 June.

His Majesty King George the Third accompanied by the Queen and three of the elder 1789.
Princesses visited this Town, and were received at the Town Hall by the Mayor and Corporation 27 June.
who being introduced to their Majesties and the Princesses by the Earl Delawar had the honour of kissing their Majesties hands—William Trattle Esq. being the Mayor.

Notes <sup>(1)</sup> Charles 1st.

<sup>(4)</sup> Vide Grant by Juliana Teffant or Tevant, 4th Edw. IV., p. 27 and 28.

NOTE.—* Taken down in 1858.

1828. At this time the Market Cross was taken down in order to make a new Entrance to the Town Hall, and alterations under it, for the accommodation of the publick.

1833. A Meeting of the Corporation was this day convened by the Mayor (Cha<sup>s</sup> S<sup>t</sup> Barbe Esq.)
26 Sept. to receive . . . . . Maude Esq. the Commissioner appointed to enquire into the Rights belonging to or exercised by the Body Corporate, their Property, Immunities, and Affairs generally.

Accordingly all Deeds Papers and Books then in their possession were produced and every information afforded relative thereto.

The Property was stated to consist as follows:—

In Buildings and Lands.

The Town Hall situate in the High Street.

Certain Buildings situate in New Lane used as a Lockup or Blind House.

The Public Fire-Engine House; and a Store containing the Moveable Stalls and Standings, Weights, Scales and other articles used at the Fairs and Markets.

A Tenement and Garden situate near the Quay in the occupation of Ja<sup>s</sup> Rawlings let at an Annual Rent of £5 10s.

A Piece of Land called Holmes Mead consisting of about 5 Acres let at £8 per Annum.

Sundry Quit Rents for Encroachments &c. in the Borough which produce annually about £12.

The River and Quay Dues, let at £20 per Annum.

The Tolls and Stallage of the Fairs and Markets let at £20 per Annum.

The Mayor is entitled to 2 Bushels of Coal out of every Cargo landed at the Quays; also to Fish of the value of six pence for every Boat Load brought for Sale.

The Claims or demands upon the Mayor are:—

For Fee Farm Rent payable to the Lord of the Manor, seven pounds twelve shillings per Annum; and

For New Forest dues eightpence per Annum; for Rights of Common, of Turbary, Pasture and Pannage (vide page 37).

The Corporation had not contracted any Debt whatever, And when the newly constituted Municipal Body was appointed the sum of nine shillings and three pence was paid into the Treasurer's hands, being the Balance of Account remaining of the last Mayor, Cap<sup>t</sup> Robert Hockings, who had been elected in 1834.

NOTES AND REMARKS.

The translation has it “Parish Church” but the original says simply “the Church of Lymington;” the position of the present Church in relation to the boundary of the Borough, does not accord with this description, for the Borough is to the Eastward and denominated the Newtown.

Page 2.—“ Sir Hugh Conneye Knt.”

I find no mention of a Lord of the Manor after the Courtneys held it, until the year 1616 when the Campion family possessed it, nor can I trace any connexion of Sir Hugh with the Borough.

Page 5.—“ Burgess Oath.”

It appears that a custom prevailed at this period upon the admission of a candidate to that office, of giving him a piece of money. It is recorded in two instances only, viz., at the election of William Whyte Esq. in 1588, and of Robert Pamplyn Esq. in 1593.

This is the first mention of a member of a family which occurs so often down to the present time; and which for more than a century past held the patronage of the Borough; their pedigree from Berry’s “Hampshire Genealogies” is annexed.

Page 6.—“ John Maller.”

His progenitor was Mayor in the 23rd of Henry 7th, A.D. 1505. Vide pa. 2.

Page 6.—“ John Longe.”

One of the same occurs in an Inquisitone p:m: 1st Richard 3rd A.D. 1483 as proprietor of 4 Messuages at Bokeland (Buckland) within the Manor of Lymington; and in 1605 Walter Longe Kt. was elected a Burgess. This was a branch of the Longs of Draycot in Wiltshire. Vide pedigrees in “Hampshire Genealogies,” p. 22 and 149.

He was of the family seated for many centuries at Bere Regis in Dorsetshire.

Several of this family were Burgesses, and two of them represented the Borough in Parliament. They possessed property at Buckland in the parish of Lymington, and at Sway in Boldre parish.

They were connected by marriage with the Burrards and other families in the vicinity of Lymington, as appears by the following extract of the pedigree in the "Hants Genealogies":—

The Manor was for a long period in the possession of the family, and the Borough represented by two of its members. There was a copper town piece struck about the year 1660 which bears his name, and a pedigree of the family which was seated at Burgate in this County inserted in the “Hants Genealogies,” p. 21.

Page 7.—“ William Dore.”

Several of this family were Mayors, and one a Member of Parliament for the Borough, this was Thomas who married into the family of Button. Vide Pedigree.

Page 7.—“ David Urry ”

Was of an ancient family seated in the Isle of Wight. Several were Burgesses and one settled at Lymington. See Pedigree in “Hants Genealogies.”

Page 7.—“ Francis Guidott ”

Was descended from Antonio G., a Native of Florence, who came to England in the reign of Elizabeth. Several of the family were Burgesses. Thomas G. published a book in favour of the Bath waters and died in 1705. As a benefactor to that city an inscription to his memory was placed on the outside wall of the Abbey Church.

Page 7.—“ Herbert Dodington.”

Three of this family which was seated at Breamore in this county, were returned to Parliament for the Borough in the years 1620, 1625 and 1640.

Page 7.—“ Richard Whithed ” or “ Whithead,”

As well as his son of the same names were Members of Parliament for the Borough; they were seated at Tytherly in this county. The Son made a donation of fifty pounds in 1694 towards the repairs of the Quay.

Of an ancient family seated at Motteslon in the Isle of Wight, one of whom was the noted Scholar and Tutor to King Edward the Sixth.

Page 7.—“Thomas Glevin ”

Was a tradesman of the Town; he issued a Copper token about the year 1660, with his name upon it.

Page 7.—“Sir John Oglander,”

Of Nunwell, in the Isle of Wight; the family was seated there from the Conquest in undisturbed possession of the Manor down to the present time. He collected materials for a history of the island, of which Sir Richard Worsley made use in the compilation published by him.

Page 7.—“John Kempe ”

Represented the Borough in Parliament in 1640; he died in 1652 and was buried* at Boldre, in which church there is a curious monumental tablet to his memory with his bust in the dress of a cavalier. A pedigree of his family is in the “Hampshire Genealogies,” p. 89. The Cardinal and Archbishop of Canterbury 33d Henry 6th of the same names was of his family.

“Robert Campion.”

The first mentioned was returned to Parliament in 1620, and again in 1640. The Lordship of the Manor was in this family from 1616 to 1664 (if not before), but it does not appear that their residence was here or any part of this county.

Page 8.—“Robert Knapton.”

Several of the name appear in the list of Burgesses. The manor of Roydon in Brokenhurst parish was held by them. William resided at Wick near Christchurch who was father to the noted Booksellers in London, and of George a painter and keeper of the King's drawings. Another William was of Whatcomb in Brokenhurst. Vide Button and Burrard Pedigrees.

Page 8.—“Henry Bromfield ”

Represented the Borough in Parliament in 1660. The family was seated at Haywood in the parish of Boldre; they held offices under the Lord Warden of New Forest; several were in the Burgess List. William, a celebrated surgeon in London who died in 1792, was of this family.

Page 8.—“Bartholomew Harmood.”

Was Mayor in 1666. John H. in this year issued a Town token with his name, by which it appears that he was by trade a tallow-chandler, as it represents a man making candles. A descendant Harry H. had considerable property in the town, but he resided at Alresford, was in the law, and had the office of “Messenger to the Great Seal.” He died in 1792 at the age of 85. His daughter married the Rev. James Scott of Itchin, by whom she had a daughter, who was married to Edward 4th Earl of Oxford; their son is the present Earl.

Issued a Town token in 1667 bearing his name. His son became a Burgess in 1712.

Page 9.—“Edward Beere.”

There were two or three of this name on the list of Burgesses. A descendant (William) in humble life had a daughter who was received into the family of Hackman and educated; possessing a good person and pleasing manners, she attracted the attention of the Rev. Thomas Thurlow (afterwards Bishop of Durham) when a visitor at Mr. Hackman's house, and who married her at Lymington on the 1st May, 1777; her eldest son Edward succeeded to the Barony of Thurlow (his father being dead) upon the decease of his uncle the Lord Chancellor in 1806.

Page 9.—“Sir John Holmes.”

This family possessed considerable property in the Isle of Wight together with the patronage of the three Boroughs in the Island; from the time of Admiral Sir Robert Holmes they were twice advanced to the Peerage. Two others of the family were Burgesses. See pedigree in “Hants Genealogies.”

Page 9.—“Thomas Hooper.”

This family was seated at Heron Court near Christchurch, which became the property and residence of the Harris family Earls of Malmesbury. Two or three of the Hoopers were on the list of Burgesses.

Page 10.—“Charles Powlett Earl of Wiltshire &amp;c.”

Whose descendants were Dukes of Bolton. The family had great influence in this Borough, and many of its members are to be found on the Lists of the Burgesses and on that of the representatives in Parliament. For a clearer explanation I subjoin an extract from the family pedigree:—

Page 10.—“Robert Smyth”

Was grandson of Sir Robert Smyth of Upton, Co. Essex, who was created a Baronet in 1665. He succeeded to the title on the death of his father and married Anne dau. of Henry Whithed (or Whithead) of Tytherly. He was Member of Parliament for Andover in 1695 and resided at Buckland in the parish of Lymington; several of his children were born here. Was Mayor in 1689, and gave evidence before a Committee of the House of Commons relative to the contested Election for this Borough in 1710 (vide p. 25).

Page 12.—“ John Wallop.”

This family was connected with the Borough in the reign of Queen Elizabeth, two of its members being returned to Parliament in the years 1586 and 1597; and having given at a recent period the title of Viscount, it seemed to have connected the family with the town by a lasting tie. There is a copious pedigree in the “Hants Genealogies,” from which the following extract is made, viz.:—

Page 12.—“ John Northover ”

Was a seafaring man, who in 1697 brought to England the celebrated Czar, Peter of Russia, who presented him with a silver cup which was preserved in his family after his death. He held property in the town, and one of the Quays bears his name; he died in 1761, aged 84.

Page 12.—“ Charles Colborne ”

Was a Law practitioner in London, and was employed by the Corporation to carry on the suit against Cross respecting the causeway he erected; he died in 1747 and was interred at Lymington Church, where there is a handsome monument to his memory, with his bust (the size of life) finely sculptured in marble by that eminent artist Rysbrack.

Sir John Colborne, distinguished by his military services, and lately created Baron Seaton, is a descendant of this family.

Page 34.

The signatures are all plain, and the leaves well preserved. It is an interesting display of names of many of the most influential and wealthy inhabitants resident in this and the adjoining counties during the seventeenth century.
